

C: Group risk management

C: Group risk management

Disclosures concerning the Group's risk framework and the management of the risk attached to the Group's financial instruments and insurance liabilities, together with the inter-relationship with the management of capital have been included in the audited sections of the Risk and capital management disclosure in the Business review. Additional disclosures are shown in section D1.